COMMODORE'S CORNER

Thank you to a very special lady, our own Miss Pennsylvania Yacht Club, Miss Colleen Maloney. The Yacht Club hosted a reception for our 2001 Princess and to crown a 2002 Princess on Saturday night, March 02. There was a fine turnout, with special appearances by the D.R.Y.L. Queen, Miss Barbara Gricco of Harbor Light Yacht Club, and her parents Butch and Barbara. Also in attendance was Miss Riverside, Miss Casey Natrin. Many of our Members and friends danced the night away thanks to the music supplied to us by Night-Life D.J.s. Colleen is looking forward to a fabulous 2002 season. So, lend your support and come out to our and other events this boating season.

Speaking of other events...

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW! OPENING DAY IS SOONER THAN YOU THINK. DON'T MISS THE ANNUAL OPENING DAY CELEBRATION TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY, JUNE 1st.

PLEASE SEE JOE LATORRE OR JOHN MALONEY IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO HELP OR ARE IN NEED OF MORE INFORMATION.

Your Friend in Boating,
Commodore John F. Maloney

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

In the interest of making the newsletter a more timely publication, this issue is a March/April edition. This way, when I create the next newsletter, it will be the May edition and will come out at the beginning of that month.

I am still working out bugs regarding on-line and snail mail distribution. The best way to insure that all our members receive the newsletter monthly is to inform me immediately if you do not receive it and to be sure your address information that I have is accurate.

Please have all submissions to me by the second Friday of each month. The response has been great so far, and I appreciate having plenty of information to share each month. You may call me at 215.361.7999, give me your information at the monthly meetings, or email me at dlcodd@earthlink.net.

Finally, if you have received this in paper format but would be willing to receive it electronically, please email me with your contact information. Thanks, Deb.

Pennsylvania Yacht Club Yearbook ad deadline is this month!

It is yearbook time again and the deadline for ads is April 15. If anyone has ads from last year that they are not happy with, it may be time to update or start off fresh with new material. Due to changing over to using a printer vs. scanned computer ads, some ads have lost clarity over the years.

We want to know what is new with everyone. Who got married last year, who had a baby? Who got a new boat? Who learned of some new boating vacation spot they want to share with the club? And be sure to send PICTURES...we all want to join in the fun.

You can also help out for work hours for the club. Contact Jim Hartman if you can make phone calls, do mailings, sell ads, run errands to the printer, all in your free time before the season kicks off.

We saw a small profit last year with the yearbook and now that the printer has our book on disk, all the major leg work that used a lot of time and money will pay off this year. THIS YEAR'S BOOK CAN BE ONE OF THE BEST YET WITH YOUR HELP, IDEAS, AND CONTRIBUTIONS. PLEASE CALL JIM HARTMAN AT 215.632.4292. THANKS - JIM HARTMAN, YEARBOOK
